

December/January 2004/2005

Personal Development Sessions Score Particularly High at Building Your Future

Popular presenter, Merge Gupta-Sunderji, CGA, earned high marks and glowing testimonials for both of her conference sessions.

Conference PD sessions received positive ratings this year, with almost all scoring 8 out of 10 and higher. The highest rated sessions were Why Does The Lobster Cast Off Its Shell with Merge Gupta-Sunderji, CGA; and Ten Marketing Tools to Increase Your Revenue with Andrew Patricio, both rating a 9.4 out of 10.

Other sessions ranking 9 or higher included Current Income Tax Issues (Glen Schmidt, FCGA); Maximizing Your Personal Effectiveness (Robert Harris, MBA, CHRP); Projecting a Positive Professional Image (Merge Gupta-Sunderji, CGA); and Secrets of Successful Influencers (Robert Harris, MBA, CHRP).

A Member's Perspective on the 13th Annual Conference of the CGA-Accounting Research Centre University of Ottawa October 21, 2004

Work, Lifestyle and Productivity: Challenges for Individuals, Managers, Organizations and Society?

By Patricia Ward, CGA

Our final speaker of the day was Merge Gupta-Sunderji, CGA, a professional speaker and management training consultant. Merge had us laughing while she provided us with the keys and tools to staying motivated while overloaded with work. I think if more managers had a session with Merge we would see happier faces and fewer managers thinking that power and control need to come at a price.